Pennsylvania College of Optometry (PCO) follows a legacy that began in 1919, when PCO created a four-year degree program that set the standard for all other institutions of optometry that exist today. From our nearly century-long and proud history, PCO has pioneered some of the most influential innovations in post-graduate optometric education worldwide.

DOCTOR OF OPTOMETRY
TRADITIONAL PROGRAM

Why Salus?

- Early hands-on clinical experience and 15 month externship program
- Small group learning experiences
- Program can be enhanced with advanced studies and elective courses and/or a residency program
- The Eye Institute (TEI) and its satellites serves as the Pennsylvania College of Optometry’s clinical teaching facilities
- Students collaborate with optometrists, ophthalmologists, opticians, and optometric technicians

ADMISSIONS CHECKLIST

- Complete an application at OptomCAS
- Complete at least 90 undergraduate semester hours (or equivalent quarter hours)
- Complete the prerequisite coursework with a grade of ‘C-‘ or higher
- Take the Optometry Admissions Test (OAT)
- Submit three letters of recommendation
- Shadow a practicing optometrist(s) (highly recommended)

For specific details on the above admissions requirements and deadlines visit salus.edu/admissions
Job Outlook/Professional Highlights
Optometry is a dynamic and challenging profession that provides practitioners the opportunity to help people and at the same time, achieve personal growth, gain community respect, enjoy great work-life balance and financial success.

- Optometry is one of top ten income-earning professions in the country today
- Diagnose and treat eye diseases, prescribe optical devices, direct pre-and post-operative care of refractive and laser surgery patients, help children with learning disabilities through vision training, provide vision rehabilitation services to people with severe vision impairments

Professional options include:
- Private and group practice
- Private industry
- Public health services
- Armed Forces
- Community health centers
- Health maintenance organizations

About Salus
- Commitment to interprofessional education and interdisciplinary training
- Primary care philosophy and holistic approach that assess the whole patient for prevention, treatment, and rehabilitation
- Exceptional clinical training sequence that begins early and includes externships and fieldwork in a variety of healthcare delivery settings
- Innovative learning strategies that include small group, interactive, and self-directed learning experiences as well as clinical problem-solving
- Integration of cutting-edge technologies to prepare students for ever-evolving professions
- Commitment to the ongoing professional and personal development and the success of each student

FOR MORE INFORMATION: Salus University Office of Admissions welcomes inquiries by prospective students. For more information, contact 800.824.6262 (choose option 1) or salus.edu/admissions. Facebook.com/SalusUniversity