

For Immediate Release:
February 18, 2016

Contact: Cathy Shea
856-642-6226

Salus University Student Christin DeMoss Elected as Executive Secretary of the American Optometric Student Association

Elkins Park, Pa – Salus University Pennsylvania College of Optometry (PCO) Class of 2017 student Christin DeMoss was recently elected national executive secretary of the American Optometric Student Association (AOSA). DeMoss also serves as the PCO trustee on the AOSA Board of Trustees.

After completing high school at Governor Mifflin Senior High School, DeMoss received a Bachelor of Science degree at Pennsylvania State University, where she served as a teaching assistant in the biology department. Currently, she is enrolled in the University's Doctor of Optometry program and she assists students with learning and comprehension of optics and clinical skills.

In addition to being an AOSA member since 2014, DeMoss currently serves as vice president of the Salus University class of 2017 student council and is a student member of the Golden Key International Honour Society. She also volunteers as a Special Olympics vision screener, providing vision screenings for athletes. Previously, DeMoss served as secretary of the Pennsylvania Optometric Student Association.

# #

About Salus University

Salus University, founded as the Pennsylvania College of Optometry in 1919, today is a diversified, globally recognized professional academic center of learning that offers a wide range of degree programs in the professions of Optometry, Audiology, Physician Assistant, Public Health, Education and Rehabilitation for the Blind and Visually Impaired, Biomedicine, Occupational Therapy and Speech-Language Pathology. Salus operates four clinical facilities in the Philadelphia area that provide highly specialized vision, hearing and balance, and speech-language pathology services. The University has more than 1,100 students, including PhD candidates, and more than 12,500 alumni worldwide. For more information, please visit www.salus.edu.