

FOR MORE INFORMATION: Salus University Office of Admissions welcomes inquiries by prospective students. For more information, contact 800.824.6262 (choose option 1) or salus.edu/admissions. Facebook.com/SalusUniversity

Salus University offers a Master of Science (MS) Degree and Certificate Program in Low Vision Rehabilitation (LVR).

Why Salus?

The interdisciplinary programs in the Blindness & Low Vision Studies department prepare professionals to work effectively in clinical rehabilitation and educational settings with people of all ages who have low vision. Emphasis is placed on a team approach to implementing low vision assessments and interventions

The University's Low Vision Rehabilitation coursework and supervised fieldwork experience satisfy the requirements for certification by the Academy for the Certification of Vision Rehabilitation and Education Professionals (ACVREP)

Programs in Blindness and Low Vision Studies were first developed at the University's founding college, Pennsylvania College of Optometry, in 1983, making Salus the first institution in the country to offer four master's degrees and certificates

ADMISSIONS CHECKLIST

- Complete an application at GradCAS
- Complete a Bachelor's degree
- Submit a CV/Resume
- Write a Statement of Purpose
- Submit three letters of recommendation

Career Description:

- Educate people who have low vision and their caregivers, teachers and others on ways to maximize vision
- Implement strategies to make environments and materials more accessible for people who have low vision
- Help individuals who have lost vision to see again using accommodations and adaptations

Work Environments:

- Low vision clinics at sites
- Eye care professional practices
- Hospitals and rehabilitation centers
- Home care
- All schools

Career Advantages:

- Every day is different, interesting, and challenging
- Rewarding career working one-on-one
- Positions available internationally

EMPLOYMENT DATA: Gainful employment data for graduates of certificate programs can be found at salus.edu/gainful-employment

