

For Immediate Release

June 3, 2022

Contact: Alexis Abate

215.780.1390

Maggie Martin of Salem Receives Doctor of Optometry Degree

Elkins Park, PA, USA—Maggie (Briceland) Martin, of Salem, was recently awarded the Doctor of Optometry (OD) degree during the 124th commencement ceremony of Salus University held May 22, 2022, at the Kimmel Center for the Performing Arts in Philadelphia.

Dr. Martin is a 2019 graduate of Washington and Jefferson College in Washington, Pennsylvania. During her years of professional training at the Pennsylvania College of Optometry (PCO) at Salus University, Dr. Martin served as the treasurer of PCO chapter of the American Optometric Student Association (AOSA) and was a teaching assistant in the optics lab. Dr. Martin is the daughter of Jerry Briceland and Jodi Briceland-McDaniel.

About Salus University

Salus University, founded as the Pennsylvania College of Optometry in 1919, today is a diversified, globally recognized professional academic center of learning that offers a wide range of degree programs in the professions of Optometry, Audiology, Physician Assistant,

Blindness and Low Vision Studies, Biomedicine, Occupational Therapy, Speech-Language Pathology and Orthotics and Prosthetics. Salus operates four clinical facilities in Philadelphia and Montgomery counties that provide highly specialized vision, hearing and balance, speech-language pathology and occupational therapy services. The University has over 1,200 students, and more than 14,000 alumni worldwide. For more information, please visit www.salus.edu.