Everyday Ethics – Practical Applications

Date: Monday, October 16, 2023   Time: 6:30 PM – 8:30 PM ET
Location: Synchronous Online Delivery via Blackboard Collaborate

Description
Ethical behavior is the cornerstone of professionalism across the lifespan in all areas of practice. Speech-language pathologists and audiologists abide by national and state codes of ethics, which ensure the public that practitioners are maintaining the highest level of care. This course is designed to review the standards of professional conduct and allow participants to practice applying ethical behaviors in real-life clinical scenarios.
