University's New DEI Special Assistant: Dr. Juliana Mosley

Dr. Juliana Mosley has joined the University as its inaugural Special Assistant to the President for DEI, effective Nov. 1, 2020.

With 20-plus years of experience in education, she most recently served as the Chief Diversity, Inclusion and Community Relations officer at Chestnut Hill College.

Dr. Mosley and the University are not strangers. She was the DEI presenter for Orientation Week in August 2019 and was invited to return as the featured speaker for the virtual Orientation Week for new students in August 2020 on the topic, "Making the Unconscious Conscious . . . Through Cultural Humility."

Stackable MSCO Certificate Series

Recent strategic planning at Salus University included scenario planning. One of the common themes that emerged from this process was the idea of stackable certificates to meet the increasingly diverse needs of a student pursuing a credential related to healthcare and/or education.

As a result, the Department of International and Continuing Education (DICE) at Salus is offering a series of stackable certificates that culminate in a Master of Science in Clinical Optometry (MSCO) degree.

The program starts January 2021 for the Comprehensive Eye Care 1 certificate.
