

Salus University Alumni Association Awards Method of Nomination and Selection

Method of Nomination

- Nominations may be made by Salus University students, alumni, faculty, staff or friends
- Only official nomination forms that have been distributed or posted online by the Office of Institutional Advancement are acceptable for submission
- Only one nomination will be accepted from an individual; however, multiple sponsors may be listed in support of a single nomination
- In addition to the nomination form, a resume, curriculum vita, newspaper or magazine clippings, or other appropriate supporting materials may be submitted

Method of Selection

- Nomination forms with any supporting materials should be received by the Office of Institutional Advancement no later than the due date.
- The selection committee will review the nominations and determine the recipient. The decision will be finalized by the Salus University Alumni Association Awards Committee. The selection committee consists of:
 - Salus University Alumni Association Board members
 - The dean of the Osborne College of Audiology*
 - The dean of the Pennsylvania College of Optometry*
 - The program director for the physician assistant program*
 - The dean of the College of Education and Rehabilitation*
 - The president of select student organizations*
 - The Alumnus of the Year from the prior year*
- A person may receive the specific award only once in his/her lifetime.

*These individuals will provide input regarding nominations of graduates from the respective college or program.
