Hear Ye, Hear Ye! Pennsylvania Ear Institute Celebrates 20th Anniversary

It's not uncommon for patients of the Pennsylvania Ear Institute to share stories about how they have been treated and taken care of over the past two decades as the clinical facility celebrates its 20th anniversary. This is part of a larger 25th-anniversary celebration in 2025 for the Osborne Audiology program. Dr.

George S. Osborne helped establish the Pennsylvania College of Optometry's (PCO) School of Audiology, creating a curriculum that combined high academic standards with a strong biomedical component.

O&P Student Goes Big on Community Service

Community service is important to Orthotics and Prosthetics (O&P) student, Casey Evans '25O&P. And people are starting to notice, especially the United States Navy. This summer, Evans received three awards from the Navy for her work as a Hospital Corpsman.

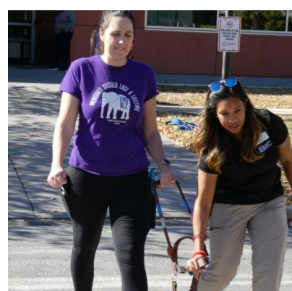

- A unit Letter of Appreciation for her role in a mass mobilization evolution helping get another unit medically ready for deployment.
- A Letter of Commendation for being recognized as the Junior Sailor of the Quarter for being an active part of her community.
- The Military Outstanding Volunteer Service Medal (MOVSM), again for service to her community.

"I just like to give other people the opportunity to experience the same things that I would typically have access to," said Evans.
