

Looking Out For Kids Virtual Charity Fundraiser Set May 1

Salus University's 14th annual "Looking Out for Kids" fundraiser will be held 6:30 p.m. on Saturday, May 1. This year's event is virtual with some live-streaming components and will honor TD Bank as the "Lighthouse Award" winner.

Once again, NBC10 News co-anchor, Rosemary Connors, will be the host of the event, some of which will be prerecorded. The event helps fund the University's programs providing additional healthcare for children in need.

Virtual tickets are $50 each and the VIP reception box is $150. Those who are unable to attend virtually are also being encouraged to donate to the "Looking Out for Kids" charity and participate in the online auction. To purchase virtual tickets or VIP reception boxes online, click here.

Read more

Faculty Focus: Ken Newton, MS, CCC-SLP

Around the Speech-Language Institute (SLI) they call him "Zen Ken." That's because Kenneth Newton, MS, CCC-SLP, assistant professor in the University's Speech-Language Pathology (SLP) department, realizes life can be difficult and he likes to remind students to relax and breathe while they're trying to navigate the challenging waters of graduate school.

Newton believes that advice has been even more critical during the pandemic. He said he found that aspect of the pandemic challenge exciting because clinical educators were kind of in the same boat as the students.

Read more

Salus University's Occupational Therapy Institute Opens

The Occupational Therapy Institute \(OTI\) at Salus University, the clinical facility for the Department of Occupational Therapy, recently opened for patient care. Located in West Oak Lane within The Eye Institute \(TEI\), OTI is the University's newest clinical facility, joining TEI, the Pennsylvania Ear Institute \(PEI\) and Speech-Language Institute \(SLI\).

OTI will serve as the clinical training site for OT students at Salus, offering diverse clinical experiences that emphasize various specializations including vision rehabilitation, emerging practice and community-based settings, and traditional placements.

Read more

Tickets Still Available for Salus Cares Raffle

Founded 36 years ago by our own beloved Harry Kaplan, OD '49, the Salus Cares Raffle has supported University programs and operations, raising nearly $850,000 over the years and giving out prizes totaling more than $470,000. The Salus Cares Raffle will continue supporting education and clinical experience for Salus students in Dr. Kaplan's memory, as he sadly passed away in 2020.

We ask you, if able, to join us by participating in this year's Salus Cares Raffle. For the first time — new this year due to COVID-19 restrictions — we are selling tickets online. First prize is $10,000 cash. Only 450 tickets will be sold. Purchase your ticket(s) now for your chance to win one of nine cash prizes on June 10, 2021.

Read more

More Salus News

Dr. Francine Pearlman-Storch:
Four Decades of Teaching
Excellence

Salus University Gives Kids
the Gift of Clear Vision with Big Red Bus

Salus Says Farewell to PA
Program Superstar Donna
Agnew

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

A photograph of a man in a suit (the president) talking to a group of students, including a woman wearing a colorful headscarf.

Learn about the state of the University from our president on his blog.

WE SALUTE

A graphic of a dome with intricate patterns, representing the Salus University dome.

Sharing updates about the Salus Community.

HEAR FROM OUR STUDENTS

A photograph of two female students sitting at a desk, looking at a laptop and talking.

Stories on why students chose Salus as their educational home.

SUBMIT YOUR ALUMNI ADVICE

A photograph of three graduates in black caps and gowns, holding a red flag with the Salus logo and a pink sign that says "#SALUSGRAD".

Share a few words of wisdom with Salus students

CLICK HERE FOR MORE NEWS