It's Now A Reality: Salus Launches New O&P Program

The new Orthotics and Prosthetics program got its official launch August 15, 2022, with a ribbon-cutting ceremony and tour of the new lab facilities. The inaugural class, which will include eight students, was in attendance for the ceremony, along with O&P faculty, Salus administration, faculty and staff, industry business partners and members of the community at large.

The Salus program is only the 14th O&P program nationwide, and one of only three in the entire Northeast region, with Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and Hartford, Connecticut being the next closest.
