

For Immediate Release
March 14, 2018

Contact: Alexis Abate
215.780.1390
267.318.0351 (cell)

Salus University to Host a Support Group for Transgender Individuals

Elkins Park, Pa. – “Raise Your Voice” is a newly created support group that will provide members of the transgender community the opportunity to practice techniques related to voice and other gender-specific communication skills. Participants will be encouraged to share experiences in a supportive space with others working towards similar goals.

The support group will be held on the third Saturday of each month, with the first meeting on Saturday, March 17, 11:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m. at the Speech-Language Institute of Salus University, 8380 Old York Road, Suite 2100, Elkins Park, Pa.

Certified speech-language pathologist Judith Koza, MA, CCC-SLP, will serve as the group’s facilitator. Koza has extensive knowledge and skills in facilitating support groups and assessing and treating voice disorders and differences in various populations, including the transgender community.

About Salus University

Salus University, founded as the Pennsylvania College of Optometry in 1919, today is a diversified, globally recognized professional academic center of learning that offers a wide range of degree programs in the professions of Optometry, Audiology, Physician Assistant, Public Health, Blindness and Low Vision Studies, Biomedicine, Occupational Therapy and Speech-Language Pathology. Salus operates four clinical facilities in Philadelphia and Montgomery counties that provide highly specialized vision, hearing and balance, and speech-language pathology services. The University has more than 1,200 students, and more than 11,300 alumni worldwide. For more information, please visit www.salus.edu.